Griffmen's Winning Streak to an End After Losing Game, 4 to 3.

Crafts..... 1 Jamieson.... 6 Harper..... 3 By JOHN A. DUGAN. St. Louis. May 20.—Sammy Crane gummed up the parade of the Nationals here today in the fourth inning and the Brownies stopped the Griffmen's winning atreak by isnding a loosely played contest, 4 to 3.

It was the first victory the Jonesmen have put over in seven games and since Bob Groom, who at one time pastimed on the hurling mound for the Nationals, turned the trick, this Mound City is relocking tonisht. 13 on the hurling mound for the Nationals, turned the trick, this Mound City is rejoicing tonight.

Bert Gallia drew the assignment for the Griffmen, and although touched up for ten hits, he pitched better ball than this indicates, and if it had not been for Crane's boot in the fourth session the Nationals would have sure copped.

"Baby Doll" Jacobson, who has been atempting in every manner he knows to hait the Nationals' winning streak, put over a great effort today when he robbed Griff's clan from a chance of tieing the count in the eighth inning when he raced back to the right field stand and pulled down Milan's line drive just as it was about to clear the fence.

Milan was not only retired on the play but Foster, who figured the ball out of Jacobson's reach, was turning second and was easily doubled by Groom at the firs; sack.

Groom was stagy with the allotment

Groom was stagy with the allotment of safe blows which he allowed off his delivery, as six bingles was all the Na-tionals could gather, three of these com-ing off the bat of Foster. Groom's wildness started the Nationals of singles, which the local player won, 6 to 2. In this set, Doyle started off like "all possessed" and took the first game rather easily. Mathey came back with the second, lost the third and then

Groom's whichess started the Nationals on the run-getting road, as Henry was passed to open the third when two runs were tallied. Crane advanced him to sec-ond by the sacrifice route and Gallia doubled to left field, scoring Henry. Judge popped out, but Foster hit to center field and Gallia dented the pan. Sisler started the Browns' half with a safe blow, and went to second when a safe blow, and went to second when Gallia cut loose a wild heave. Jacobson, who is a slow runner, then hit to Crane, and in attempting to cut down Sisler at third he hit the Brownie in the back. Severoid followed with a single which scored Sisler, and Cuba Marsans worked the squeeze play which tailled

The Browns gathered their other counters of the game in the fifth, when Austin hit safe and scored on Sisler's triple to the center field fence. Jacobson grounded to Crane, who cut down Sisler at the plate, but while Judge, Leonard, Crane, and Henry were chasing Sisler between third and home, Jacobson' did the route to the far corner. Severoid then obtained his second safe blow and Jacobson scored.

The Nationals added their final tally in the sixth when Foster started with a hit and moved to second on Rice's infield tap. Elmer Smith then hit a long fly to Marsans, who made no attempt to head off Foster going to third. "Fatima" pulled a la Ty Cobb and kept digging for the plate, and when the fleet-footed Cuban recovered himself and decided to throw, Foster was across the pan.

Marsans' stab of Smith's drive and Jacobson's one-hand catch of Milan's licencher should be constructed by the cobson's one-hand catch of Milan's licencher should be constructed by the color of the good out-of-town players now at Fort Myer is being arranged for next Sunday afternoon. EMERALDS TO STAGE

At a meeting of the Emerald Athletic Club, it was unanimously indorsed that the Emerald Athletic Club play a game of ball every Sunday at the American of ball every Sunday at the American League Park for the benefit of the Red Cross Society.

This offer has been made to Chairman

Detroit, May 20.—The Tigers defeated the Yankees here today, 1 to 6. Boland not only bested Russell in a pitchers' battle, but won his own game with a double

This offer has been made to Chairman Henry B. F. Macfarland, of the Red Cross Society, and also to Mr. B. Minor, of the Washington Baseball Club.

The Emerald Athletic Club has secured the services of W. W. Malone as manager. Mr. Malone, who was formerly manager of the crack Clarendon baseball team, will be assisted by John Murphy, who was a former member of the Clarendon team and is well known among the followers of baseball in this city and vicinity. Mr. Malone, who has for many years past been associated with baseball in this vicinity, expects to have one of the best semi-professional teams seen in action on local diamonds.

In the above proposal we ask for the co-operation of every patriotic American in making this a financial success, as this is done in the spirit of patriotism.

GOLF QUALIFICATIONS

GOLF OUALIFICATIONS TO BE PLAYED TODAY DARCY REMAINS IN

The qualification round in the golf event for the women's championship of the Chevy Chase Club starts this morn-ing at 10 c'clock. It will be at eighteen holes, match play to start tomorrow and holes, match play to start tomorrow and be played at the rate of a round a day, ending with the final round on Thursday. On Thursday afternoon there will be an approaching and putting match and a driving contest, while Saturday will be devoted to a mixed foursome handicap "tombstone" event for a cup presented by Mrs. Floyd P. Waggaman.

Griff's Nationals have been a pretty icky ball club to date in not being hand icapped by injuries to the players. Al-though five of the mainstays have been on the hospital list no great handicap practically all day and was almost "all in," in order not to disappoint the gallery, he and "Connie" Doyle played one set was felt. The biggest setback of the Western invasion was handed the club yester-day, when Ray Morgan twisted his ankle when he scored in the second session. Morgan had been one of the crew that was meeting the ball when hits meant runs, and his timely blows win, as the local crack took the last three, all of which were deuced, and brought out some wonderful tennis. The will surely be missed. Morgan played through the game Saturday, but when the awoke this morning he could put but very little weight on the ankle

MINOR LEAGUE OWNERS FEAR 1917 SEASON

New York, May 20.—Minor league base-ball magnates are fearful that the year of 1917 will prave a knockout for some of the club owners. That there is considerable apprehension felt in American Association circles was emphasized to-day with the arrival of President Thomas J. THE FOOLISH ROOKIE. "Away down South," a rookie said, "Til show 'em how to twirl, I'll come back home a hero, and I'll win some city girl" So under balmy Georgia skies, Where chillsome breezes blow He buzzed the ball across the plate And dreamed of big league dough. But when the boys came rolling home

All ready for the gong This verdant rookie's dream had fled For he was not along. They left him in a small tank town In Georgia State one day Where underneath the balmy skies He tossed his arm away.

Closest Match in "Letts" Event Is Be- Third Man on Mat Is Official Referee of Panama.

What is expected to be one of the Good progress has been made in the two May events for members of the Columbia Country Club—the regular monthly tournament and that for a leg on the TLEHTS. Trophy. A number of close matches were played in both tournaments.

In the regular event, it took Orville Brown two rounds to dispose of Emmons S. Smith, president of the club; finally winning, 2 up and 1.

Harry Jarboe the little manager of the two out of three fails to count. Harry Jarboe the little manager of winning, 2 up and 1.

The closest match in the "Letts" event was that between John L. Weaver and George H. Chasmer, twenty-seven holes being necessary before a decision could be reached.

Two out of three falls to count. Harry Jarboe, the little manager of the Ninth street play house is leaving no stone unturned to make this the best night's entertainment ever staged for the followers of the mat game.

Last night this manager announced that J. Fred Huber, who is the official ref-eree, of Panama, will act as the third man on the mat. Huber will be a new comer to the grappling fans of this city, as it is his first appearance north.

The referee of this match is well known to the sport loving public of Panama, and has for some time past been the official judge of all sporting events of that country

Manager Jarboe stated that he thought that he had picked the right man for the job, as Huber at one time was a wrestler himself, as well as a fight promotor, and the present time, he is dick-ering to promote a fight for Freddy Weish and some likely contender of the light-weight title. The first bout of the evening will start
